CLARKE QUAY

Enjoy dining at Clarke Quay's riverside restaurants or even on a docked traditional bumboat. There's plenty of bars and clubs to take you into the wee hours and during the day, colourful, colonial buildings tell the story of the quay's initial days.

KAMPONG GLAM

A fantastic mix of ethnicities has created this diverse neighbourhood. See stunning Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Temple and the golden dome of Sultan Mosque. Wander and dine on pretty Arab Street, and visit Haji Lane – it's Instagram worthy.

MARINA BAY

For all things new and shiny, head to the Marina Bay precinct. Walk along the waterfront promenade, visit the ArtScience Museum or see a performance at Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay. At Marina Bay Sands®, take in views from Sands SkyPark®.

ORCHARD ROAD

Renowned Orchard Road is at the top of every shopper's list. This tree-lined street is packed with numerous shopping malls. From the glitzy and glamorous ION Orchard, to bargain hunting favourite Far East Asia, you'll find everything here.

SENTOSA ISLAND

CHINATOWN

The country's largest heritage precinct is packed full of cultural treasures and character-filled streets. See the impressive Buddha Tooth Relic Temple & Museum, grab a bite to eat on bustling Chinatown Food Street and party on Club Street.

LITTLE INDIA

Explore historic Little India, where narrow streets and alleys are abuzz with life and colour. Taste authentic Indian food and watch as the tea brewers pull milk tea with great showmanship. See vibrant buildings and places of worship.

BINTAN ISLAND

Bintan Island is part of Indonesia, but it's just a ferry ride off the coast of Singapore. Slow down on Bintan's white beaches, indulge with an Indonesian massage and dine on fresh local seafood. Pick up the pace with kayaking, trekking and world-class golfing.

EXPERIENCES YOU'LL LOVE

The best part of any journey is the experiences you have along the way, leaving you with memories to relive long after the holiday is over.

Singapore has countless amazing things to see and do. Here are some of our favourites to inspire your wanderlust
